INTRODUCTION

The Small Business Council of the Greater Cheyenne Chamber of Commerce annually recognizes local businesses with three awards — Small Business of the Year, Minority Business Person of the Year and Small Business Advocate of the Year.

The Small Business of the Year Award is presented to an established organization that not only contributes to the community, but also demonstrates one or more of the following: growth in number of employees; increase in sales/unit volume; innovative product or service; or response to adversity. Qualifying companies must be five or more years old.

The Minority Business Person Award is presented to a minority owner or manager of a company that has been in business three or more years.

The Small Business Advocate Award is presented to an organization or individual that engages in civic and community action that promotes small business. In addition, they assist small businesses in management, financial, or legal matters.

AWARD CRITERIA

All nominees must be from the Cheyenne area and must be a member (in good standing) of the Greater Cheyenne Chamber of Commerce. Visit www.cheyennechamber.org for a complete membership directory.

The Small Business Council encourages the nomination of someone you believe is a good fit for these awards. You may nominate yourself or your business.

If appropriate, financial data will be collected and reviewed by the Awards Selection Committee.

Please see the Nomination Form on the reverse side.

Nominations must be submitted to the Chamber office no later than March 31, 2010.
